PREPARATION

As we are about to plunge into the fiery pits of war, we must make efforts to train and prepare ourselves for what comes next,if you wish to overpower and annihilate the enemy's soldiers you must prepare YOURSELF, do not be completely blinded by a group mentality, your personal skill is just as important as your connection to your battle brothers.

Below are links to a website (and specific training templates) that will surely prepare you for what comes next:

https://aim400kg.com/ - Main Site
https://aim400kg.com/game/385 - Tracking https://aim400kg.com/game/637 - Strafe Tracking https://aim400kg.com/game/2 - Flick Aiming

Be sure to use whatever you believe is most necessary for you to improve.
Personally, I would recommend focusing on both tracking exercises.

INDOCTRINATION

An army without propaganda is nameless.
I will be putting Drake in charge of a very special group of people, it will be called:
“The Indoctrination Committee”
This group will include artistically and creatively gifted individuals from our beloved creed, here they shall coordinate with each other to create large scale propaganda campaigns in order to:

1. Demoralize our enemy
2. Motivate our troops
3. Captivate new recruits

If you believe yourself to be an individual fit for this position, DM Drake and send them some previous work, it can be anything: games, images, videos, music. It doesn’t matter what kind of media it is as long as it is high quality.
He will then select the best out of all applicants and put them in a GC in order to coordinate properly.

COORDINATION

It is crucial that we maximize the amount of score we gain in order to gain the lead during the event.
In order to do this, use tactics that produce the highest amount of points possible, ensure that our team wins every round you play, and
MOST IMPORTANTLY: ALWAYS COMPLETE THE ASSIGNMENTS GIVEN TO YOU IN THE EVENT PAGE! IT IS BELIEVED THAT DOING SO WILL AWARD EXTRA SCORE!

Make sure to encourage your fellow cobras to join you if you are losing the battle, do not be afraid to call reinforcements.

PARTICIPATION

And lastly, none of this can be done without your constant and consistent activity.
We are here to win, not just because we get items if we do, but because we will prove ourselves to be superior, and because winning is way more fun than losing.
Whenever you are free, get in-game and score us some points. If you can’t join at that moment try to practice for when you can join, if you can’t do that just encourage others to stay active and keep fighting.

We are a team, a brotherhood, and we will not win if we don’t deploy consistently.

I want (whenever possible) your full attention on the war effort, just play as much as you can every day and we should be set for victory.
